

Software Development Internship

Position: Development of business software in an agile development team

Start Date: 15.05.2013 or later

Duration: 9-12 months

The Company:

code4business has its roots in the Research Institute for Operations Management (FIR) in Aachen, Germany. With good reputation in business software selection and process reorganization FIR ships software solutions since 2005. code4business offers business software written in C# and Magento, especially for Shareholder Relationship Management and innovative eCommerce-Systems. Our approach helps our customers figure out the exact features required by their business.

Tasks:

- Develop business software with PHP/Zend-Framework and C#
- Integrate this software with other Systems
- Become part of the currently formed agile development team

Requirements:

- Solid Computer Science and Programming background
- Good knowledge in Java, C# or PHP
- Good Knowledge in SQL and Databases
- Knowledge in the following topics preferred: ERP-Systems, GUI Design, Web Design, Magento
- Good English spoken skills, fair English written skills, German helpful (not needed)
- Student status / Recent graduation (max. 18 month before starting the internship)

We offer:

- Young team using modern agile processes (eXtreme Programming) and techniques
- Project lead experienced in programming and IT project management
- Responsibility to develop for external customers
- Salary of 675€/month
- A growing start-up company, spirit and responsibility
- Opportunity to continue working for the project when the internship ends

Contact:

code4business Software GmbH
Nikolai Krambrock
Dennewartstr. 25-27, 52068 Aachen, Germany
Tel: +49 (241) 523100520
Web: <http://www.code4business.eu>
E-Mail: info@code4business.de